JOHN MASON, Upholsterer, LIVING at Mrs. Colleton's, the corner of King and Queen-streets, makes and repairs all kinds of UPHOLSTERY WORK, in the newest fashion: All persons who are so generously disposed as to employ a young beginner, may depend not only on having their work well done, but with the greatest dispatch.
Said MASON has for sale, choice pickled SALMON, and cods SOUNDS & TONGUES in cags, with sundry other articles.

TO BE SOLD,
On the 20th of November, next on the plantation late of J.
Field, deceased,
SOME slaves, and stocks of horses, cattle, hogs and sheep; also two tracts of land, one joining Luke Stoutenburgh and Thomas Hutchinson, Esqrs. the other consists of two islands near Capt. John Bull's: Any person inclined to purchase at private sale, may treat with the subscriber before the day of sale: Who hereby gives notice to all persons that have any demands upon the estate, to bring in the same as the law directs, so as to receive payment by the aforesaid day, and to all persons indebted, to make immediate payment to WILLIAM FIELD, Executor.

STRAY'D into the plantation of Mr.
Thomas Wright, at Black River, in the parish of St. James, Goode-Creek: A young Italian roan horse, about three years old, with black tail and mane, and branded on the mounting side, on the buttock, N. I. Whoever claims the said horse, must prove his property before me THOMAS WRIGHT.

The co-partnership of Hooper, Swallow and company, and Hooper, Swallow and Poole, being dissolved by the death of Tho. Hooper, Newman, Swallow, & Thomas Poole, Surviving Co-partners,

HAVING removed to the house on the Bay, formerly possessed by Messrs. Harvey and Philip, and lately by Mr. Richard Milford: Will sell the goods remaining in town and at Bacon Bridge, at eight and an half per cent, with a considerable allowance on taking the whole stock together.
They will likewise dispose of their lands and buildings at Bacon Bridge: The situation of the place, for trade, needs no recommendation, as it is well known to be one of the best in the province. They will be obliged to those whose accounts have been longer standing than the first of January 1764, to call and settle, as there is an absolute necessity for the same being done.—Rice or indico will be taken in payment at market price.

TO BE SOLD,
A tract of land, commonly known by the name of Bull Finny-neck, pleasantly situated between Bull Finny and Cow-wat-bie-bridge, in Prince-William's parish.
CONTAINING about 2000 acres, proper for corn and indico, and upwards of 400 very good rice land; has five settlements on it, with good dwelling-houses and out-buildings, two of which under good fence, with two sets of new indico vats, and sufficient reserves; one settlement fronts Broad-river, and affords an extensive and agreeable prospect, about six miles from Port-Royal-Island, and about 500 acres hard feeding marsh; the whole tract is situated that a mile and a half of fence will inclose it entirely. Whoever inclines to purchase all or any part may apply to Andrew Deveau, sen. in Prince-William's parish, or Dewar and Bacot, in Charles-Town. 51—63

TO BE SOLD, at public sale, at the plantation of Mr. ROBERT RIVERS, (son of Jeremiah Rivers) deceased, on James-Island, on Wednesday the 14th day of November next:

ALL the personal estate of the said deceased, consisting of two slaves, one of which is a good butcher, a handy market-man, and a fine waterman, a stock of tame cattle and hogs, the crop of corn, peas and potatoes, some household furniture, wearing apparel, &c. &c. The condition of the sale will be made known on the day of sale.
All persons indebted to the estate of the said deceased, are desired to make payment; and those that have any demands, are desired to make them known by the day of sale, to DANIEL LEGARE, jun. Administrator.

A Small trotting black gelding, four years old, with one white eye, branded on three quarters H. supposed to be stolen from North-Carolina, by one Whitehead, may be had of the subscriber, the owner proving his property, and applying according to law, to PATRICK CALVERT, J.P.
Lanc-Cinet, Oct. 17th, 1764.

A regular tobacco manufactory opened,
By IMANUEL CORTISOZ, from London,
Adjoining his store in Broad-street.

WHERE all kinds of tobacco and snuffs are manufactured as in London, and sold by any quantity (not less than one shilling and three pence worth) at the following very low prices, viz.
High and low tooth Scotch Snuff, at fifteen shillings, seventeen and six pence, and twenty shillings per pound or bottle.
Plain, scented, and St. Domingo Kapper, at twenty shillings, five and twenty, and thirty shillings.
Smoking tobacco, at five to ten shillings.
Pigtail, at ten shillings. And Leaf Tobacco, at two shillings and six pence.
And as he has been at great pains and expence to establish this manufactory, and intends to manufacture chiefly, if not wholly, of the produce of this province, which he will maintain to be equal, if not superior to that of Virginia, he flatters himself he may be favoured with, and deserve the encouragement of the public.
All orders from the country, will be faithfully and diligently complied with, for ready money. And great allowance will be made to those who buy largely, or to sell again.
N. B. Empty square bottles, will be taken in exchange at Twelve shillings and six pence per dozen, or at Ten shillings cash.

TO BE SOLD, by GEORGE LIVINGSTON, THE plantation, or tract of land known by the name of the Distillery, about four miles from Charles-Town, by water; pleasantly situated, on a bold creek, containing, by a survey made by the late Mr. William Wilkins, seven hundred and ninety-five acres: There are on said land three tapey buildings, one of which is near ninety feet long, and forty wide, the other two about thirty by twenty wide; a good dwelling house, large barn and other out-houses, two sets of new indico vats, a lime vat and pump, two dams of water, one of which containing about ten acres, is near to, almost joins, the largest of the tapey buildings. This plantation was bought of Doctor Samuel Carne, with a large copper still, two iron ones, and other implements for distilling, and stands in the same manner as when bought: not more than one hundred and thirty acres of the land is cleared, about sixty of which is under a new fence.

STRAY'D some time ago, a white trotting horse, about 12 years old, and 13 hands and an half high, branded on the mounting shoulder. — Whoever delivers him to the Printer hereof, shall have THREE POUNDS reward.—N.B. The said stray has been frequently seen at the FOUR-HOLES, about Mr. William Stead's.

at his plantation, on Cooper River or house in Charles-Town.

STRAY'D or stolen, off Mr.
Lynch's green, about the 20th instant (October) a white horse, about thirteen hands high; branded D on the mounting buttock. Whoever delivers the said horse, or gives such information of him that he may be got, to William Chisholm, in Queen-street, near Mr.
Pendergrass's, shall be handsomely rewarded.

The following strayed horses were lately taken up, on the plantation of the subscriber, near the River house.
A Dark bay horse, about thirteen hands high, a small star in his forehead, branded CM on his mounting shoulder, and N on his off buttock, and other brands which cannot be distinguished.
A black horse about fifteen hands high, no brands that are distinguishable, but mark'd with many white saddle spots.
A bright bay horse, bald face, and no brands, about thirteen hands high. The owners are desired to prove their property before ON. 24. 1764. D. DOYLEY.

RAN away, from the subscriber, about a month ago, a negro wench, named MARY, of a short stature, pitted with the small pox; had on, when she went away, a green petticoat, and ozenburns shift: Whoever will deliver said negro to the warden of the work house, shall receive Three Pounds reward, from IMANUEL CORTISOZ.

slaves, mostly this country born; also, a large number of tame black cattle, and some valuable horses and mares, with the hogs, sheep, plantation tools, and crop of rice, corn, peas, &c. as they at present are: Credit will be given to the first of January 1765, for all sums above fifty pounds, and all under to be paid down. The property not to be alter'd until the conditions of the sale are complied with.
SOPHIA HARVEY, Executrix:

A Young man, from England, who can have an undeniable character, will be glad of employ in a counting house, or store; will have no objection to go supercargo to any colony; understands book-keeping and merchants accounts, and writes a tolerable hand: For further particulars enquire of the printer.

THE said plantation, containing about 80 acres of land, whereon is a good dwelling house, a new barn, and all manner of convenient out-buildings; the land is esteemed to be as good as any on said island; is situated in a fine healthy and pleasant place, and has a large bold creek, which makes a landing at the door. Also, a parcel of choice negroes, amongst them a good butcher and market-man, a very valuable wench that can cook, wash and iron extremely well, a good boatman, plantation slaves, and a parcel of handy boys and girls; likewise, cattle, hories, sheep, hogs, household furniture, plantation tools, and a very fine large bold canoe in good order. The condition of this sale is ready money. All persons that have any demands on the said Mr. Daniel Rivers, are desired to send them in properly attested, by the 10th day of November next, and those indebted thereto, to make payment by that day to BENJ. STONE, } Executors.

JOHN HEARNE. }

A SINGLE woman, with a child, would be glad of a place in a plantation, to take the charge of a dairy, raise poultry, &c. Any persons wanting such, are desired to leave their names with the printer hereof.

FOR a strayed black horse, about thirteen hands and an half high, with a galled back, branded on the mounting buttock O, and on the off shoulder with a figure 8, the owner may apply to HENRY SMITH, J. P. Goose-Creek, October 29th, 1764.

LYDIA, the wife of John Wilson, having eloped from her husband; he hereby forbids all persons to give her any credit in his name, being determined not to pay any debt of her contracting, from this 23th day of October 1764. He likewise forbids the harbouring or entertaining his said wife, on pain of prosecution.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 5, 1764.

THE election of new members of assembly for the province of GEORGIA, began on Thursday the 18th ult. and will not be over till Tuesday the 6th instant. Joseph Otwell, Alexander Wylly, John Milledge, and N. B. Wimbury Jones, Esqrs. are elected for the town of SAVANNAH; John Mullryne, Esq; for the SEA-ISLAND; Isaac Young, Esq; for AMERCON and GOSHEN; Sir Patrick Haulston, Bart. for VERMONTBOROUGH; and David Cutler Braddock, Esq; for ACTON.

According to our advices, the legislature of Pennsylvania have not laid, or thought of laying, a very high, or any duty, on all Rice imported into that province.

On the 23d ult. died at Stono, aged 77 years, Mrs. Mary Miles, born in America, and who had lived 57 years in this province. Her husband, Mr. Thomas Miles, a native of this province, died 5 years ago, in the 71st year of his age. The generation of this pair, was 9 children, 37 grand children, and 12 great-grand-children, in all 79; of which there now remain alive, 3 children, 23 grand-children, and 7 great-grand-children.

Last Thursday Thomas Foley, Esq; commander of his majesty's ship the Essex, was married to Miss Catharine Mellicamp; a daughter of Mr. Thomas Mellicamp, who made such useful discoveries a few years ago in the manufacturing of Indigo.

Altho' upwards of 100,000 barrels of last year's crop of rice have been exported, from this port only, to the 1st instant, it is computed that there are still for sale more than 5000. And the seasons have been so favourable for the present crop, that it is imagined it will exceed the last.

The price of rice is at present uncertain: The last parcel, sold at 4s. 6d. per 100 lb. The Charles-Town Price-Current is otherwise the same as when last published in this paper.

Friday last passed by this bar, and was spoke with by Mr. Jacob Waldron, one of our pilots, a sloop ten days out from Philadelphia, one Kelly master, bound for St. Augustine.

The sloop Molly, Capt. Sinclair, from Jamaica for Georgia was left in the night of the 4th ult. on Cumberland-Island. The captain and his people got safe to Savannah in their boat the 21st.

The Hillsborough packet-boat, Capt. Green, sailed from Jamaica for West-Florida the 2d of last month, and may be daily expected here.

Wednesday last Salomon Hughes, and Whalanawitrea (the Creek Indian who murdered Badingfield) were executed pursuant to their sentence. Hughes behaved with becoming decency. The Indian died like one.

The snow Eagle, Capt. James Hatten, from this port, for Antigua, overset in the night of the 23d of Sept. in lat. 25. 4 N. long. 65. 30. The people were 12 hours on the vessel's bottom, when the boat came up; and in the boat 9 days before they discovered any vessel, when they were taken up by a schooner from North Carolina for St. Kitts. The carpenter died in three days after the oversetting of the vessel, and served the rest of the people for sustenance till they were taken up; and that very day lots had been cast who should die for their further sustenance.

The sloop Royal-Cumberland, Robert Wile's master, from the Bay of Honduras for London, is just put in here very healthy.

DANIEL LEGARE, jun. & Comp.

HAVING declined businels, they entreat their friends to discharge their accounts immediately. Those that do not comply, may expect to be sued, without any further notice.

AS there is a necessity of speedily closing the affairs of LEGARE and DARQUIER, whose co-partnership expired the 1st of January 1762, (near two years ago) Therefore, those concerned will please to observe, that all accounts unpaid the first of December next, will after that day be put in suit, as none can, reasonably, expect longer indulgence.

ALL persons indebted to Daniel Legaré, jun. on his own private concern, are desired to take notice, that all accounts unpaid the first day of December next, will be put into an attorney's hands, to be sued for, as none can plead the want of indulgence.

The Subscribers, beg Leave to inform the Public,

THAT they have opened a SCHOOL for the tuition of YOUNG LADIES, in the most polite and useful branches of education, viz. both French and English, writing, needle-work, and dancing, &c. And as it will be their peculiar study, to initiate and forward the scholars they may be favour'd with, in the most expeditious and accurate manner: They hope to meet with encouragement suitable, which will be esteemed a particular favour done.

Their most Respectful, and Obedient humble servants,

ELIZABETH & REBECCA WOODIN.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 5, 1764.

THE election of new members of assembly for the province of GEORGIA, began on Thursday the 18th ult. and will not be over 'till Tuesday the 6th instant. Joseph Othello, Alexander Wylie, John Milledge, and N. B. Wimbush Jones, Esqrs. are elected for the town of SAVANNAH; John Mullryne, Esq; for the SEA-ISLANDS; Isaac Young, Esq; for ARECORN and GOSHEN; Sir Patrick Housham, Bart. for VERMONTBOUGH; and David Cutler Braddock, Esq; for ACTON.

According to our advices, the legislature of Pennsylvania have not laid, or thought of laying, a very high, or any duty, on all Rice imported into that province.

On the 23d ult. died at Stono, aged 77 years, Mrs. Mary Miles, born in America, and who had lived 57 years in this province. Her husband, Mr. Thomas Miles, a native of this province, died 5 years ago, in the 71st year of his age. The generation of this pair, was 9 children, 37 grand children, and 11 great-grand-children, in all 79; of which there now remain alive, 3 children, 23 grand-children, and 7 great-grand-children.

Last Thursday Thomas Foley, Esq; commander of his majesty's ship the Effort, was married to Miss Catherine Mellicamp; a daughter of Mr. Thomas Mellicamp, who made such useful discoveries a few years ago in the manufacturing of Indico.

Altho' upwards of 100,000 barrels of last year's crop of rice have been exported, from this port only, to the 1st instant, it is computed that there are still for sale more than 50000. And the seasons have been so favourable for the present crop, that it is imagined it will exceed the last.

The price of rice is at present uncertain: The last parcel, sold at 4s. 6d. per 100 lb. The Charles-Town Price-Current is otherwise the same as when last published in this paper.

Friday last passed by this bar, and was spoke with by Mr. Jacob Waldron, one of our pilots, a sloop ten days out from Philadelphia, one Kelly master, bound for St. Augustine.

The sloop Maly, Capt. Sinclair, from Jamaica for Georgia was lost in the night of the 4th ult. on Cumberland-Island. The captain and his people got safe to Savannah in their boat the 21st.

The Hillsborough packet-boat, Capt. Green, sailed from Jamaica for West-Florida the 2d of last month, and may be daily expected here.

Wednesday last Salomon Hughes, and Whelanawima (the Creek Indian who murdered Bodingfield) were executed pursuant to their sentence. Hughes behaved with becoming decency. The Indian died like one.

The snow Eagle, Capt. James Warren, from this port, for Antigua, overfell in the night of the 3th of Sept. in lat. 28. 4 N. long. 65. 30. The people were 12 hours on the vessel's bottom, when the boat came up; and in the boat 9 days before they discovered any vessel, when they were taken up by a sloop from North-Carolina for St. Kitts. The carpenter died in three days after the overfalling of the vessel, and served the rest of the people for sustenance 'till they were taken up; and that very day lots had been call who should die for their further sustenance.

The sloop Royal-Cumberland, Robert Wolfe master, from the Bay of Honduras for London, is just put in here very leaky.

RUN away from me, on Thursday October 4th 1764. A tall negro fellow named SAUNDY, of the Mandingo country, near 6 feet high, very much pitted with the Small-Pox in his face; had on when he went away an ofnabrug shirt and trowsers, a green woollen jacket with white metal buttons, walks very much upright, his heels very long, was purchased at Mr.

Prieau's vendue the 12th of April last. Whoever will apprehend the said negro fellow, and bring him to me, shall have a reward of FIVE POUNDS currency; but whoever will give information where he is harboured, so that the offender or offenders may be brought to justice, it by a white person, shall be paid on conviction, the sum of TEN POUNDS, if by a negro, FIVE POUNDS. All masters of vessels and others, are hereby cautioned not to carry off the said fellow, on pain of being prosecuted with the utmost severity of the law, by CHRISTOPHER HOLSON, Warden of the Work-House.

RUN AWAY from the subscriber, about three months ago, a negro fellow named GUY, about 25 years of age, this country born, speaks good English, is about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, of a yellowish complexion, and has lost part of his upper fore teeth. Whoever will apprehend the said fellow, and deliver him to me near the Meeting-house on Ashley-River road, shall have five pounds reward.

WILLIAM MELL.

INFORMATION has been given of the following frays to the
